The Brown Whirlwind Takes the Passaic Stakes at Monmouth.

SWAYBACK TENNY WAS LAST.

Don Alonso Captures the Sapling and Mars the Stevens Stakes.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD
MONMOUTH PARK RACE TRACK, July 23.—Tenny, the game little swayback who held such a warm spot in the affection of the public only a few years ago, was a starter in the opening event at Monmouth Park to-day. The sway-backed colt was appalled when left the paddock. It was plain to be seen, however, that Tenny was not the horse he had been. In the race he was last. He showed some of his old-time speed, however, by leading for a half-mile.

Kingston, the brown whirlwind, won in fast style. He was a prohibitive favorite at odds of 3 to 1 on. Correction beat the Matthew or the place.

Mr. J. C. Elbert yielding to public clamor the experiment of putting a good, willing jockey on Don Alonso. Every time he had been defeated it was by a narrow margin, and the critics laid it to Murphy.

Tenny was put up to-day, and the colt made white running and won under a double pull of one length.

The race left the talent still undecided as to whether Don Alonso is or is not a man, and left Tom Watson a head for the place.

Mars again demonstrated that at a distance of 1½ miles the three-year-olds, barring accidents, will get from start to finish and win under punishment by half a length from Kilkeen.

Merry Monarch was a poor third. The latter was a two-year-old and round while Mars was tucked down and cloud favorite. Patron was down.

The races were witnessed by a crowd of 10,000 people, and the sport was thoroughly enjoyed.

The Board of Control announced to-day that there would be no cause for action in the case of the running of Kingston, as it could not be shown the owners of the horse for any wrong doing.

It was a hard race, and the horses were fatigued. Kilkeen led in the stretch and was determined to hold on. Elbert, however, again, led a hard race, and Mars led in the stretch and apparently maintained Mars, however, drew way off with a long run, and round while half a length from Kilkeen, who beat Tom Watson a head. RACEHORSES REPORTED LOST.

Seventeen Said to Have Burned with Bollingbrook Stables.

ASSOCIATED PRESS

BALTIMORE, July 23.—The report is received that seventeen fine racehorses, the property of J. A. & H. Morris and of R. H. Walden, were lost last night in flames which consumed the famous Bollingbrook Stables on Mr. Walden's farm at Middleburg, Carroll County.

The fire was caused by a lightning stroke. It is not yet known precisely what horses were burned. There were 100 box stalls in the main stable, and they were nearly all occupied, the value of the stock approaching half a million dollars.

Among the stallions at the farm were such valuable animals as Imported Galore who cost $60,000; Sir Joseph, by Gleneg; Tom O'Gallagher, Whinfred, Vigilant and the beautiful imported hopeful. Probably the only insured horse on the farm was Galore, and its insurance amounts to but $7,000.

On the 1st of last month the horses are said to have been 2½ years old. It is believed the stables and mares were saved.
